

FASI International Graphics, Satire, and Humor Contest - Italy

Regulations

FASI, the Federation Association of Sardinians in Italy, invites all the cartoonists in the world to participate in the special edition of the contest "Graphics, satire, and humor" created to celebrate the 150th anniversary of the Unity of Italy.

1. The contest is open to all cartoonists, illustrators, and graphic designers around the world. You are also allowed to participate without competing. Such requests exempt the author from winning a prize, but makes it possible to still publish and/or display the author's work.

2. Theme: FRATELLI D'ITALIA

From the kingdom of Sardinia to the kingdom of Italy. From the Italian republic to the European Union. From Europe to the United Nations. Independence and globalization. One hundred and fifty years of events, action, heroes and influential people either in Italy or the European Union.

Foreign artists may express themselves on the following subjects: the fortunes of the ideals of the 20th century, on the condition of democracy achieved in their own country, on the respect observed towards human rights and peace, on the destiny of the concept of the State and national unity in times of globalization, or rather they can tell about their country's perception of Italy.

In the age of globalization try to express:

- The capacity to evoke concepts of unity and national identity, independence, liberty, and the state. Philosophers, politicians, and poets of the Italian rebirth (Risorgimento Italiano) and to retell the most important moments and the influential people that characterize the first 150 years of Italian history.
- The current condition of democracy, humanitarian works, and peace.
- The future of the state, of the state in times of globalization and fortunes of the current ideals of the '900.

3. Sections

The contest is divided into three categories:

A) Sardegna. This is dedicated to the artists that with any graphic technique, satire, caricature, or cartoon strip that brings to mind the actions and the Sardis that, originating from the kingdom of Sardegna, were creators of the kingdom of Italy and of the Italian Republic.

B) Illustrations. Graphics, lithography, web art, computer art

C) Satire and Humour. Cartoons, strips, caricatures

It is permitted to submit an entry for each of the three categories.
