Cartoon Section: THEATER

Theater is one of the oldest performing arts, consisting of the live enactment of stories before an audience. It combines acting, speech, gestures, set design, music, and sound to convey emotions and narratives. It encompasses both the dramatic literary genre and the physical building or venue where performances take place.

Caricature Section: Satirical Portrait of JUAN JOSÉ BOTERO RUIZ

Writer, poet, and editor from Rionegro; a pioneer of theater.

His work "Far from the nest" is part of the most distinguished body of Antioquian folkloric literature.

He contributed to the publication of various newspapers and pamphlets, in which he published literary and historical content.
