

Dear colleagues,

I would like to inform you that Cartoon festival "Kolašin 2021" has announced 6-th International Cartoon Contest.

Rules:

CONTEST THEME: Hrabrost /Courage, Bravery, and FREE theme. The participants can send a maximum of 3 works per one theme to compete (six works in total). There must be full name and country of the author, and number of the works on each work. For example: JOHN SMITH USA 1, JOHN SMITH USA 2 ...

The theme of this year's festival is "courage, bravery." Man is an imperfect being and lives with fears. Can a man be free and just if he does not have the courage? Can he achieve his goals if he is not brave? Is courage madness or the strength of man? Man is surrounded by various dangers, trials, torments, diseases, wars, violence and injustices... Can a man overcome all this if he does not have the courage? Does courage make him stronger and more just? In the end, can a man be an upright, proud, free and conscious being if he does not have the courage?

Artists from all over the world will respond to this given topic through cartoon and strong messages. The best works will travel the world and send a message around the planet. We will award the best works with the First, Second and Third prizes, which will be in cash and in the form of trophies and diplomas. We will also award seven special prizes - diplomas.
